

Private Business Radio Licence Application Crib Sheet

This document is designed to act as a guide for customers using EMS Wireless text paging systems, who are required to apply for a radio Licence for the site where the equipment is to be installed.

Section 1 - Customer details

Points 1-8. These sections are to be completed by the user containing site specific contact and licence owner information.

Section 2 - Type of licence

Point 9. A tick-box is provided for the type of licence required. Self-Select PBR licence should be selected at this point. No other sections are required until question 30.

Section 3 - Base station/operating area details

Point 30-33. Site specific detail i.e. installation address.

Point 35. The antenna described as Omni-directional antenna should be selected at this point.

Point 36. The height of the tip of the antenna as it is installed above ground level should be specified.

Point 37. The 'base station ERP level' should be stated as 0.5Watts.

Point 38. Select the No option for remote control. No other sections are required until question 45.

Point 46. Select the No option

Declaration To be filled out by the licence applicant.

No other sections are required.

For further information please contact EMS Technical support on 08712 710804

